

Q3 WORKLOAD

Ottawa-Carleton District School Board
Building Brighter Futures Together @OCDSB

Q3 What are some important priorities for the OCDSB to focus on for the next four years?

Providing on-the-ground supports for classrooms and teachers who are dealing with stressful situations daily, Experienced teachers are facing more challenges than ever, and it will begin to affect their health.

Elementary Staff

4.3 ★★★★★ (21 👤)

Give teachers more time to do their work We don't have enough time to do our job properly

Secondary Staff

4.0 ★★★★★ (18 👤)

Support for staff Teachers who are overwhelmed and under-resourced cannot teach to their abilities

Elementary Parents and Guardians - 2

3.9 ★★★★★ (19 👤)

Educator wellbeing Many are stretched thin. They are on the front line, without them, students cannot learn.

District Office and Centrally Assigned Staff

3.9 ★★★★★ (14 👤)

balanced work load and more time off to relieve stress off students

Students Grades 9 to 12

3.9 ★★★★★ (13 👤)

We need to focus on the well-being of staff.
Happy and healthy staff will be reflected in the atmosphere of our schools

Community Members

3.8 ★★★★★ (27)

Staff wellbeing Staff who aren't well cannot serve communities properly

Community Members

3.8 ★★★★★ (23)

Reduce paperwork (ie STEPS, tiered intervention, PRISA) etc. It does not help improve teaching practise; it just adds more stress to teachers. I feel we are drowning in paper work and it is just not needed at all!

Elementary Staff

3.8 ★★★★★ (19)

equality and well being support for union exempt employees feel like there is no place to go for help

District Office and Centrally Assigned Staff

3.8 ★★★★★ (11)

Well being of teachers and staff They are influencers of our young people ion and need to be well supported

Secondary Parents and Guardians - 4

3.6 ★★★★★ (23)
