

Q1 OTHER

Ottawa-Carleton District School Board
Building Brighter Futures Together @OCDSB

Q1 What are some things that the OCDSB is doing well to support learning and well-being?

The community collaboration and student involvement with projects that work with and for the community they and the school live in. parent Involvement in student affairs and activities to engage parents.

Elementary Parents and Guardians - 2

4.0 ★★★★★ (22 👤)

reading buddies, teacher communication/sharing successes, collaborative learning, team sports, teachers who inspire, parent community involvement inspiring fun learning as well as the basics, collaboration, fun-loving school environment while learning, happy with my school

Elementary Parents and Guardians - 3

3.9 ★★★★★ (18 👤)

The school brings in special guests who are experts in their field to bring students new information on such issues as drugs, cyber-bullying Students need to be aware and know their options as new challenges emerge

Secondary Parents and Guardians - 4

3.8 ★★★★★ (23 👤)

I am impressed by and grateful to the teachers and guidance staff at Nepean for their interest in and support for students as individuals. All teens need to be recognized and accepted for whom they are as individuals. It makes such a difference to their sense of self and self esteem.

Secondary Parents and Guardians - 3

3.8 ★★★★★ (16 👤)

Focus on transitions: Link Crew, Leadership classes, scholarships and post-secondary information/training As anxiety and stress become more publicly acknowledged the value of focusing on transitions is increased.

Secondary Staff

3.7 ★★★★★ (19)

Between classroom teachers, student success teams, special education and guidance there can be a well rounded system of support for student needs. No individual has the expertise to understand and support the combination of needs presented by 60 - 90 students per semester

Secondary Staff

3.7 ★★★★★ (14)

I'm not sure. Each school is quite different in how it supports learning and well-being. It does not seem that there is a consistent approach.

Elementary Parents and Guardians - 4

3.6 ★★★★★ (24)

Collaborating, being intentional, measuring success Becoming more evidence based

Community Members

3.6 ★★★★★ (23)

The OCDSB is great at promoting academics, the arts and athletics It is important that all students find what they are best at be it academics, the arts or a sport

Students Grades 9 to 12

3.6 ★★★★★ (23)

Many opportunities for social interaction and sports at higher school level Some teachers are very good about posting notes, activities and links to course material on their webpage. This is very useful.

Secondary Parents and Guardians - 3

3.6 ★★★★★ (18)

Partnerships with other organizations (CHEO, high schools, etc.) Collaboration is beneficial for learning and partnerships can help with the well-being of young students

Elementary Parents and Guardians - 2

3.6 ★★★★★ (9)

