

Q3 SAFETY

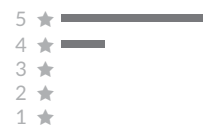

Ottawa-Carleton District School Board
Building Brighter Futures Together @OCDSB

Q3 What are some important priorities for the OCDSB to focus on for the next four years?

Teacher and student safety in the class. Make this a priority or you will have hundreds of teachers out on mental stress leave.

Elementary Staff

4.4 ★★★★★ (21 👤)

Supporting the students learning and well-being including the safety of the whole school.

Elementary Staff

4.2 ★★★★★ (12 👤)

Drugs, smoking, vaping, alcohol, sexual harassment - all of which are real problems. Just because it is illegal doesn't mean it isn't happening.

Sexual harassment/assault Take survivors seriously and improve from past mistakes.
Students Grades 9 to 12

3.9 ★★★★★ (26)

Crackdown on abusive teachers The recent CBC article on sexual misconduct at Bell HS has showed how poorly the board deals with this.
Students Grades 9 to 12

3.9 ★★★★★ (23)

To investigate harassment accusations seriously A teacher who is known to be rude and unreasonable is still employed because they're gay despite hundreds of students protesting
Students Grades 9 to 12

3.9 ★★★★★ (23)

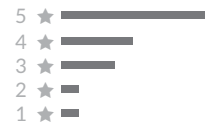

Supporting students and making the learning environment safer and more accepting. Should be obvious, we all deserve it.
