

OTTAWA-CARLETON
DISTRICT SCHOOL BOARD

Who Am I?

Kyl Morrison — Indigenous Educator. Moose Cree. Experience supporting First Nations, Inuit and Métis Students in a number of school boards in Southern Ontario. I love Indigenous Knowledge, food, cooking, drawing, music, gardening, sweet water harvesting, fishing, kayaking, biking, canoeing, fitness, reading, movies, visual art...

What is my Role?

Graduation Coach for Indigenous Students — Supporting First Nations, Inuit and Métis Students' high school experience, engagement and success. Connecting community values, and realities to education and educators. Supporting, Advocating, Facilitating:

- Well being
- Pathway navigation
- Social experience
- Education success

When can I offer support?

Every day! You can contact the Graduation Coach for Indigenous Students at Gloucester High School right now through email kyl.morrison@ocdsb.ca

Where will you find me?

In the guidance offices and The Lodge at Gloucester High School.

Why seek me out?

- Need some help with assignments
- Want to learn more about my culture
- Having a hard time getting to class everyday
- Need to talk to someone
- Forgot or don't have a lunch or snack
- My teacher is asking me for an assignment and I'm not quite finished
- I have to present in class and I'm scared
- I think I might be failing a class
- I just bombed my last test
- I want to be a doctor and I don't know what classes to take
- I want to switch a class

High school offers opportunities that have tremendous impacts on individual, family and community lives. The main goal is to support Indigenous Youth in a way that enables individuals, families and communities to benefit from the opportunities of high school.
